DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2, 6, 9-10, 12, 14-15, 17, 20-21, 23, 25-27, 31-32, and 35-37, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McLeod et al (US PAT# 5,222,120).

Regarding claim 1, McLeod teaches a In a communication network comprising a plurality of subscriber telephone lines (see col.2, lines 18-20), each coupled to an associated telephoning switching facility, each subscriber telephone line having at least one directory number and an associated subscriber profile including selected information services, a method for providing information services to a subscriber, comprising: detecting an off-hook condition at a subscriber telephone line (this feature is inherent) ; determining the information services selected by the subscriber (reads on customer profile, see col.24, lines 45-57); and, generating a message corresponding to the selected information services for receipt by the subscriber, wherein the step of determining comprises correlating the subscriber directory number with the selected information services in the subscriber's profile (see col. 24, lines 51-57).

Claims 16 and 27 are rejected for the same reasons as respect to claim 1.

Regarding claim 2, wherein the message is an audio message (see col.24, lines 29-39).

Regarding claims 6, 17, and 28, McLeod teaches a method wherein the step of determining comprises correlating the subscriber directory number with the selected information services in the subscriber's profile in accordance with predetermined criteria (see col.4, lines 29-32).

Regarding claims 9,10, 20,21,31, and 32 wherein while receiving the message, or after the message completes, entering one of a plurality of codes by the subscriber accesses additional information, and entering a code by the subscriber accesses the subscriber's correspondence messaging service (see col.24, lines 58-68).

Regarding claims 12,23, and 35 McLeod teaches the communication network is a public switched telephone network.

Regarding claims 14, 25, and 36, McLeod teaches that the subscriber selects an appropriate calling number by generating DTMF (dual tone multi-frequency) tones (see col. 25, lines 43-45).

Regarding claims 15, 26, and 37 wherein the message is terminated when the subscriber goes "on hook" by hanging up the line. (The feature is inherent in the reference; hanging up will end the transmission of the message).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 2642

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 3-5,7,8,11,13,18,19,22,24,29, 30,33 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McLeod.

Regarding claims 3-5, the use of different types of messages such as text, video, and graphic message would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made since the use of multimedia messages is well known and desired.

Regarding claims 7, 18, and 29 wherein the predetermined criteria includes the time, date, or day of week (the subscriber would obviously specify how often a certain feature such as the news or the weather will be need it).

Regarding claims 8, 19, and 30 wherein the predetermined criteria includes the time since the last detected "off-hook" condition. This simply reads on the subscribers choice of having the service provided during certain times or after making certain number of phone calls.

Art Unit: 2642

Regarding claims 13, 24, and 35 wherein selecting an appropriate calling number by the subscriber terminates the message.

Regarding claims 11, 22, and 33, wherein the communication-network is an advanced intelligent network (AIN) this is simply reads on using the features in an advanced intelligent network.
